

When angels die

Von Godot

Deidara Pov

I sat on the edge of the skies and looked at the people under me. It was not all that long ago that i'am dead. And now i looked on you, just on you! I reflected, it were beautiful when i can speak with you. But unfortunately it is over i can not anymore speak with you. I wouldn't die through your hand i died. But i forgive you. Actually i must hate you but i can't! I wouldn't say you: " i don't like you!", what i meant to say is: "I love you!" , now it's to late for this much to late! I can see you from here. You looks like the dead why? I don't understand. You miss me? No! That's not true or yet? I can hear you Itachi. You say: When angles die Deidara, when angles die!", "I'am your angle Itachi, just your angle"
